

Chartwell Co-operating Parish (St Alban's) has an opening for a full-time minister.

We are a theologically diverse congregation with a wide range of faith experiences. For over 50 years we have combined three faith traditions (Anglicans, Methodists and Presbyterians) with grace, respect and flexibility. Manaakitanga (generosity, hospitality), aroha/love, and mutual respect are the bedrock of our congregation.

The right person for this role will be able to work within this diversity with respect and encourage mahi o kotahitanga/togetherness and belonging.

We are seeking someone who

1. Appreciates and will support youth and family ministry.
2. Delivers inspiring and creative worship.
3. Will walk with parishioners on their faith journeys and be open to exploring many pathways in faith.
4. Is committed to social justice and supporting our Eco Church ethos.
5. Is capable of adapting.

If you think this is your cup of tea, contact the Bishop's Executive Chaplain of the Bishop of Waikato and Taranaki at bishopschaplain@Wtanglican.nz for a copy of the full minister profile.

Applicants for this position should have the legal right to work in New Zealand.
